JENNIFER MCMILLAN HEAD OF LEGAL SERVICES

Jennifer McMillan joined The Trust Company in 2005 as Head of Estate Planning. Prior to this appointment, Jennifer had over 15 years experience in private legal practice in Sydney and Perth.

Jennifer was admitted to practice in New South Wales in 1989 and in Western Australia in 1992 and her qualifications include a B.A./LL.B. (UNSW 1988). A Law Society of NSW Accredited Specialist (Wills and Estates), Jennifer is one of a small number of accredited specialists in the area of wills and estates. This qualification confirms her extensive practical experience and expertise in this particular area of law. Jennifer is also a member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners.

As an expert in her field, Jennifer also presents on issues concerning wills and estates at conferences and seminars for legal, accounting and financial planning professionals. To maintain her status as an accredited specialist in her field, Jennifer is committed to a solid program of ongoing, continuing legal education in the area of wills and estates.

As Head of Legal Services, Jennifer manages a team of solicitors who specialise in estate planning and undertake other legal work in connection with estate administration and philanthropy. She also oversees the technical implementation of The Trust Company's comprehensive estate planning service - Wealth Transfer Planning, which includes the following components: simple and complex wills, estate plans, estate administration, powers of attorney and technical expertise and support for intermediaries.

The Trust Company has been offering wills and estate planning services to Australians for over 120 years. Estates and trusts is one of Trust's core strengths and the business commands a strong presence in Victoria, New South Wales and Queensland.
