The Max Afford Playwrights' Award was created "to promote interest in Australian drama and to encourage the writing of plays in Australia, to help and give incentive to young writers of plays for either stage, TV or films".

Terms and Conditions

1. Prize

The 2010 prize includes:

- > $7,500 cash prize; and
- > expenses to a maximum of $2,500 for registration, accommodation and airline tickets to attend a reading of the winning play at the annual Australian National Playwrights' Conference following the announcement of the winner.

2. About the Max Afford Playwrights' Award

The Max Afford Playwrights' Award was established to promote interest in Australian drama, to encourage the writing of plays in Australia, and to help and give incentive to young writers of plays for either stage, TV or films.

The Award is an initiative of the late Thelma May Afford, who in her will established a fund to offer a periodical prize in memory of her husband to provide young writers with a reward enabling them to improve their creative writing, and through the above means to improve the general public's appreciation of Australian drama and playwrights.

Trust Company Fiduciary Services Ltd, ABN 21 000 000 093 (Trust) is the trustee of the will. The Trustee is guided in making the Award by the decision of a majority of judges as constituted by the will. The prize is directed to be awarded to the person who is judged to be of the highest merit.

If there is no play worthy of the prize in the opinion of the judges, then the Trustee may at any time suspend the awarding of such a prize for such time as it may think proper.

The Award is currently awarded on a biennial basis.
